

WOODSTOCK FAIR CLOSING DAY—

AWARDS IN CATTLE SHOW

Woodstock, Sept. 14.—Given another good day, a sizable closing session crowd came to the Woodstock fair today. The swarms of people that attended Wednesday were missing, but the attendance was large and those who came found that getting about the grounds and exhibition building was a much easier task than on the preceding day, and that the exhibits could be viewed more leisurely and with greater satisfaction.

At the close of the fair the officials expressed themselves as pleased with the measure of success it had attained. The attendance was not quite up to last year on the big day, as indicated by a falling off of about $300 at the box office, but this had proved true throughout the current year with all manner of exhibitions and outdoor attractions.

This year the cattle show was one of the best seen at the grounds in years. A number of the towns of the county were represented in the exhibits in this department and the prize awards earned are scattered through a wide territory.

In the registered Holstein division numerous awards went to animals exhibited by E. C. Rogers of Mainup farm, Putnam. Mr. Rogers received first on a 3 year old bull, on 4 year old cow, on herd bull and four cows, on year old heifer, on heifer calf, on 3 year heifer, 3 year heifer, second on 1 year heifer, heifer calf and 4 year cow; third on 1 year calf, 4 year cow, heifer calf; fourth on "veteran" on heifer calf.

W. S. Wadsworth received first on grade Holstein on 3 year old heifer. M. Williams of South Woodstock registered Jersey, H. B. Bell of Eastford was awarded seven firsts and two seconds. Howard C. Bradford of Putnam was given a second award on his 3 year old Jersey heifer. A first award for a 3 year grade Jersey heifer went to W. C. Child of Woodstock.

In the registered Devon division, nine firsts and six seconds went to O. B. Carpenter of Eastford, and in the grade Devons division four firsts and one second went to Mr. Carpenter.

In the grade Ayrshire division, first award for 3 year old bull was given to Ewell James of Killingly. Also he registered Ayrshire, Howard Barstow of Killingly received first award for 1 year bull, first for 1 year heifer, second for bull under 4 months. He also received a first award for 1 year heifer, second for 3 year heifer, third for 1 year heifer, fourth for 1 year bull.

On grade Ayrshires, Ewell James received firsts on two 1 year heifers, first on heifer calf and second on heifer calf. C. D. Arnold, Putnam, showing registered Guernseys, received first on 1 year bull, first on 4 year cow, first on heifer calf, third on heifer calf. The Nikoloff farm, Putnam, Ayrshires, received first on 3 year heifer, T. A. Manley, Pomfret Center, received first on Guernsey bull calf. W. C. Child, Woodstock, was awarded first for 3 year Ayrshire bull, fourth for 4 year cow, fourth for heifer calf. S. H. Padham, Woodstock, second for 3 year bull, John R. Stromberg, Abington, third for 4 year bull, for cow 4 years and over, first for heifer 3 years, second for heifer calf.

In grade Guernseys, the Nikoloff farm received one first award and two thirds; T. A. Manley, two seconds and one third; W. C. Child, Woodstock, two firsts, two seconds, one third, one fourth; S. M. Padham, three firsts, three seconds, one third.

An incident of the racing, one of the pleasing features of the fair, was the reading of the track record Wednesday by Henry R. a brown gelding owned by Merle Marney of Southbridge. Henry R. set the record from 2:27 1-4, established by himself at the fair in 1920, to 2:24 1-4. The horse was the winner of the free-for-all over a track that was in the best condition at Woodstock for years.

There were six starters in this race, which was marked by a crash on the track in one heat and later by a clash between the two interested drivers at the stable.

The result of Wednesday's races was as follows:

2:20 class, purse $500:
Palmer Voia, b m, O. R. Steedman, Lafayette, R. I. 1 1 1

Pamco, Nutwood, b E. J. Flood, Dayville 3 3 4
Time—2:25 1-4, 2:25, 2:27 1-2, 2:34 1-2.

Attractions that helped make the fair a success began to move off the grounds late Thursday afternoon. Some of the exhibits go to Southbridge and to Waterbury, and still others to other fairs in southern New England.

Nothing objectionable was allowed on the grounds this year. State police carefully supervised all the activities of those operating concessions and not a thing that could reasonably be complained about was permitted.

SHADE OF COCOA POPULAR

AMONG NEW AUTUMN TINTS

One of the well liked shades in the fashionable brown this season is cocoa, which is exactly what its name implies. In Polart twill for tailored models, or in the popular satin-faced or Canton crepe afternoon frocks, it appears to have a strong place in the favor of designers.

Tailored designs in the modish shades of brown, navy or wood green, as well as black, come in coat or straight line model, given a smart touch with either braid or duvetyne trimmings, or panels.

The panel effect is liked also on the afternoon frock, which may be set off with a mere suggestion of the fashionable metallic cord or piping, a bit of colored embroidery, or possibly narrow plaitings.

The slightly lengthened skirt is going to please the short or medium tall woman, since the lengthened line, accentuated by skilful draping, or perhaps some novelty in beaded effects, produces the slender appearance which every woman craves.

The fur-collared suit comes strong this fall—and appeals to every shopper by reason of its elegance and utility. Rich shawl or converted collars of any of the modish fur, such as racoon or possum, give the fashionable finish to a suit of oxford plaid, herringbone mixture, or to the coat of homespun, tweeds or overplaid; whatever the choice, such a purchase is sure to prove satisfactory.

Some of the best of the season's plain coats have a snugly fitted tailored sleeve, while others run to raglans—it is altogether a matter of individual taste.

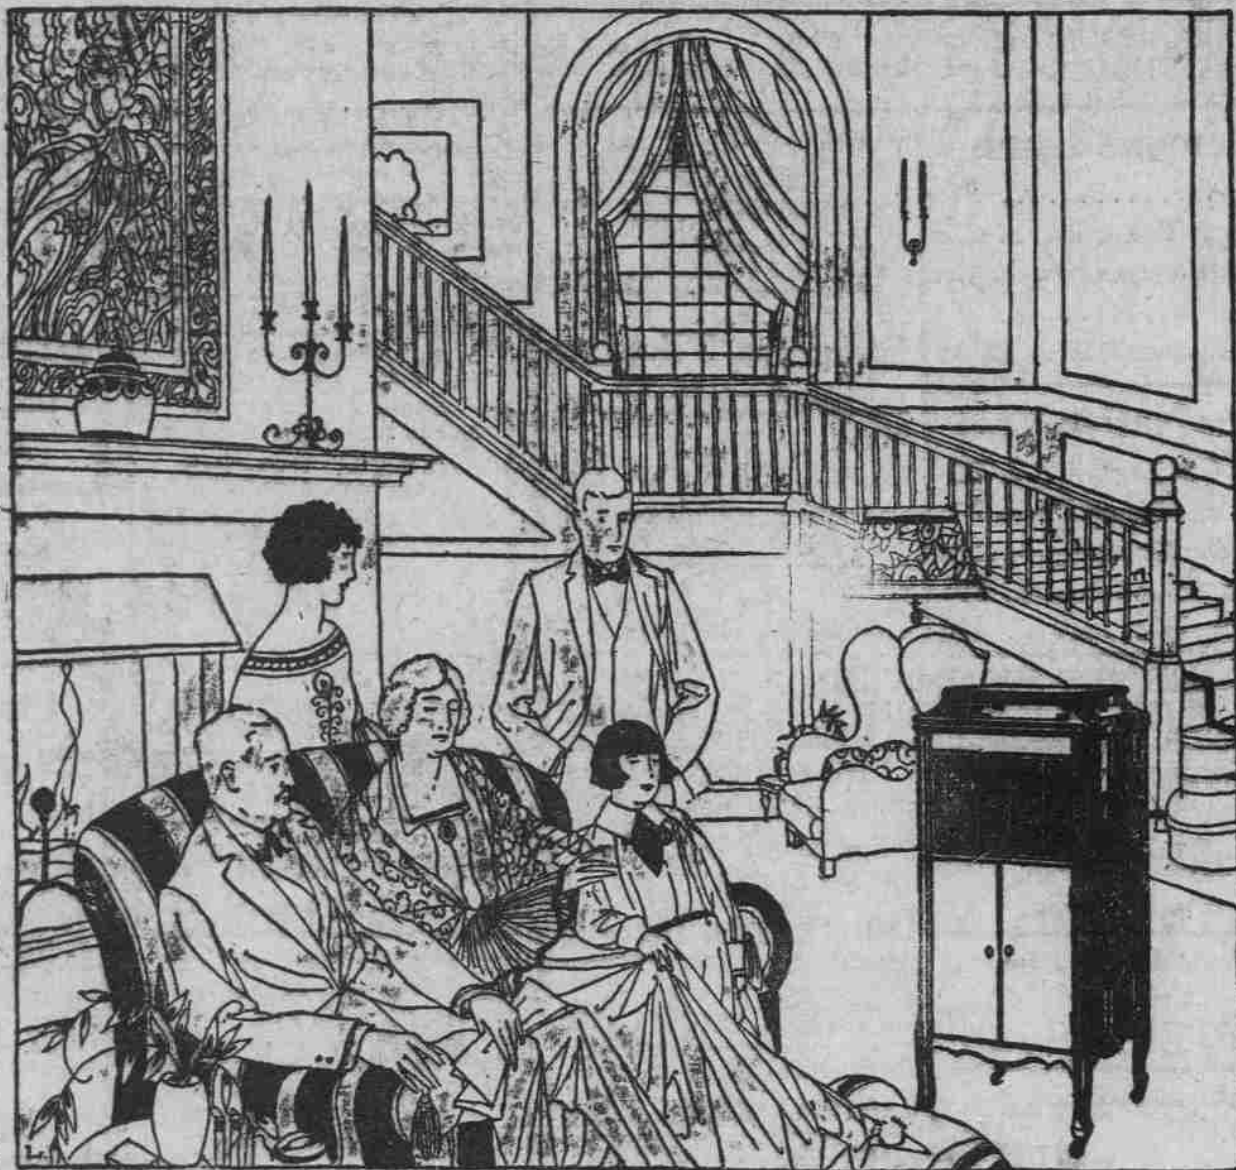

Look over the autumn offerings of elegant frocks, suits and coats now, while stocks are yet unbroken.

Where the newest modes are to be found is explained today in the advertising columns of The Bulletin.
